Course Description and Objectives
This course examines human sexuality from an anthropological point of view. The hallmark of anthropology is its emphasis on both the biological and cultural dimensions of what it means to be human. That perspective enriches our understanding of human sexuality because it encourages us to examine a wide range of human sexual experiences across cultures and over the evolutionary history of our species. We will apply this holistic perspective to the genetic, physiological, psychological, social, and cultural dimensions of human sexuality. By the end of the course, you should be able to:

• Describe the biological and cultural components of human sexuality, as well as the interaction between them
• Examine your own beliefs and assumptions about sexuality
• Think critically about the social and cultural influences on your sexual knowledge, beliefs, and behaviors
• Incorporate scientific knowledge about the range of human sexuality into your opinions about the political and ethical aspects of sexuality
• Analyze the assumptions and evidence that others use when making claims about sexuality
• Identify the biological, behavioral, and sociocultural factors that influence your sexual health
• Talk comfortably and knowledgeably about sex and sexuality

Course Materials
Additional Required Readings are posted on E-Learning (http://lss.at.ufl.edu/).

Course Format:
This course is primarily lecture-based, but relevant questions, discussions and participation among students are highly encouraged. Lectures will include information from the textbook and readings, as well as outside sources, including online materials and films. All readings are required and are to be read BEFORE CLASS to best understand lectures and to be able to participate meaningfully.

Quizzes and Exams:
There will be a syllabus quiz with 10-15 multiple-choice questions and two exams with 50 multiple-choice questions each. The quiz will cover material in the syllabus; exams will cover material from assigned readings, lectures, films, guest speakers, and class discussions. The exams are noncumulative and equally weighted. Both quizzes and exams will be online, from 8:30-11:59 pm. You will have 30 mins for the syllabus quiz and an hour for the exams. Your time starts once you start the exam. You will not be able to pause and come back to it later. The exam will turn off at 11:59 no matter when you start it so please plan accordingly.

In-Class Activities:
There will be six unscheduled in-class activities, which will be graded. Missing class on the day of an activity will cost you points.

Extra Credit:
There will be one extra credit opportunity that will account for 5 % of the grade. This assignment has two parts: one due in the beginning of the semester and one due at the end. For the first submission, you are required to fill out the activity on page 8 of your book. For second submission, you are required to fill the same activity again and write a one-page memo on how your answers changed and how the course helped change them. Detailed instructions will be discussed in class.

Attendance Policy:
Attendance will not be taken but is expected. Absence in class will directly affect your grade, since power point presentations will not be posted online. Additionally, quizzes and exams will contain questions that pertain directly to lectures and discussions in class. Absence due to a sickness will be excused with a doctor’s note. If you have some other valid reason to miss class, please contact the instructor well before class by email to arrange for make-up work. Requests for make-up work after class absences will not be accepted. This is non-negotiable. Any student who misses more than three classes must communicate to the instructor the reasons for these absences. If for any reason you stop attending class, without notifying your instructor, you will receive an “E” grade on your permanent record. Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work are consistent with university policies that can be found at: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx

Harassment and Discrimination:
“Harassment” is defined as conduct that (1) is of any type (written, oral, graphic, or physical) (2) is directed towards or against a person because of their personal status (i.e. race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, political affiliation, national origin, age, disability, marital status, pregnancy or others) and that (3) unreasonably interferes with the individual’s work, education, or participation in activities or programs at UF or creates a working or learning environment that a reasonable person would find threatening. “Discrimination” is defined as a conduct that (1) adversely affects any aspect of an individual’s employment, education, or participation in activities or programs at UF, and (2) is based on one or more personal characteristics listed above. Any student who feels their rights have been violated are asked to confront the offending party, should that not resolve the issue, or the student is uncomfortable with confronting the offending party they may file a complaint with UF Department of Human Resources.

Cell phones, computers, touch pads and other smart devices:
College students are adults and capable of making informed decisions. Use of cell phones, computers and touch pads will not be actively policed. However, students are asked to please be respectful their fellow students in the course as well as the instructor, who will not appreciate continued distractions. If you are talking, reading newspapers, listening to your iPod or other mp3 player, or being disruptive in any other way, you will be asked to leave. You must turn off cell phones or set them to silent mode. If a phone rings or is in use in class, it will be confiscated until the end of class.
Every student in this class is expected to participate in a responsible and mature manner that enhances education. Any conduct that disrupts the learning process may lead to disciplinary action. See http://www.ufsa.ufl.edu/faculty_staff/fees_resources_policies/sexual_harassment/. Because this course deals with sensitive subjects, it is essential that each student helps to create an environment of respect and tolerance.

Course evaluations:
Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/.

Academic Honesty:
All students are expected to do their own work without unauthorized assistance. Any student found cheating, will be given a grade of zero on the assignment. Violations will lead to the Department’s and the University’s procedures for dealing with academic dishonesty. UF students are bound by the Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignments.” The Honor Code (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sscr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

For questions about what constitutes academic misconduct please consult the UF Honor Code as well as the UF Policies on Academic Honesty. These are available online at https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sscr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/.

24-hour Grade Dispute Policy
Students who wish to discuss grades on assignments and exams should contact the instructor within 24 hours of posting to arrange a meeting time. Please do not wait until the end of the semester to question grades or request special consideration. Twenty-four hours after posting, all grades are final.

Late Assignment Policy:
Assignments that are turned in late receive no credit or will not be evaluated unless there has been a documented emergency. Similarly, missing an exam deadline will result in a failing grade for that exam unless there has been a documented emergency. Documented emergencies include emergency (not routine) hospitalizations of the student (certified by attending physician), deaths in the immediate family or love (parents, siblings, spouses, children, or a lover; certified by a mortician), or disabling accidents/diseases involving the student near the time of the due date (certified by police). No more than one such exception will be made.

Student Conduct
All students must comply with the Student Conduct Code which can be found at http://www.dso.ufl.edu/studentguide/studentconductcode.php. Any behavior that interferes with either the instructor’s ability to conduct the class or the ability of other students to benefit from the instructional program will not be tolerated. Please turn off cell phones and all other electronic devices before class. Laptops may only be used to take notes. Disruptive students will be asked to leave.
