Objectives of the Course:
This course explores the sacred relationships constructed among humans and plants in cultures primarily of the Americas. Among topics to be discussed are: plants as concocted to become intermediaries between humans and the divine; plants as constitutive of the “body” of the gods; sacred rituals involving plants; human/plant relationships as the privileged locus of discourse on the nature of the divine and spirit worlds.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

1. A 20-minute oral presentation (30%) on one of the sacred plants of the student’s choice, how a given culture utilizes one or more plants in religious rituals. Questions to be answered in these presentations will be distributed for the students to follow.
2. A research paper (30%) on a topic of the student's choice related to one or more sacred plants either discussed in the course or not, plant-human interactions, theoretical or methodological issues.
3. Two (2) brief Reflection Papers (750 words in length) on any three of the films and documentaries we will be watching during the course (each paper worth 15%);
4. Class participation (10%). Students are expected to attend all classes and complete assigned readings prior to each class meeting. Continued absence will not be tolerated; unexcused absence will be penalized: 2 grade points will be taken off the final grade for unexcused absence. More than 3 unexcused absences will lead to administrative withdrawal from the course; Pop-quizzes are part of class participation and will be administered whenever the Professor considers them necessary.

REGULATIONS OF THE COURSE:

1. Plagiarism or cheating: Students are expected to uphold the highest standards of academic honesty and integrity. Students caught plagiarizing or cheating will automatically receive a grade of zero on the assignment in question and will fail the course. In addition, they will be reported to the appropriate university authorities. Please keep in mind that plagiarism does not consist only in copying verbatim someone else's material and presenting it as if it were yours. It also includes taking ideas (even paraphrased!) from an author without according him/her proper recognition (through a footnote, for instance). Other forms of cheating (particularly downloading material from the Internet and presenting as if it were yours) will also be subject to the same action. See http://www.dso.ufl.edu/judicial/honestybrochure.htm http://www.dso.ufl.edu/judicial/academic.htm for more information on UF policies.

2. Incompletes are strongly discouraged and will be given only when students who have finished most of the assignments satisfactorily cannot complete the final requirements due to unforeseen events. If this is the case, students must arrange for the incomplete before the end of the semester.
3. Make-up exams and quizzes will be given only under very special circumstances, such as a medical emergency. In that case, students must bring a doctor’s note.

4. Students engaging in disruptive behavior will be asked to leave the classroom. Please turn phones and pagers off during class. Texting and all non-class related use of laptops, iPads, etc. are not allowed and will be penalized if done repeatedly.

5. Students with Disabilities. Students requesting classroom accommodation or special consideration must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the instructor when requesting accommodation or special consideration.
