

Anthropology Coffee Talk with Faculty

Wednesday, September 9, 1-3pm

Come meet some of our Anthropology professors and learn what they research and teach. This is an informal gathering open to all Anthropology students!

Stephanie Bogart Primatology, human sexuality, biological anthropology

Steven Brandt Archaeology, International Heritage

Aaron Broadwell Native American languages, linguistic anthropology, Timucua

Pete Collings Cultural Anthropology, Indigenous Peoples, Arctic

Lance Gravlee Medical anthropology, racism, public health, methods

John Krigbaum Bioarchaeology, Isotopes

Gabriel Prieto Archaeology in Latin America, archaeology of violence

Ken Sassaman Archaeology of futures, hurricanes, cosmology

Adrienne Strong Medical anthropology, hospital ethnography, Africa

Phoebe Stubblefield Forensic anthropology

Catherine Tucker Coffee production & consumption, sustainability, Fair trade

If you would like to submit questions or topics before the event, you can do so here:

https://docs.google.com/document/d/1YHD7ClqZMhFGo_2nMhKxRqfCjyfurEogychd9vMFoo/edit?usp=sharing.

Real-time questions are also welcome!

Zoom link: <https://ufl.zoom.us/j/93991747184?pwd=bog2WFR1ZUE2cUJCuzRiQ2JLdndLZzo9>