

THE RISE OF CHINA IN AFRICA

Friday, April 5, 3:30 P.M.
404 Grinter Hall

COBUS VAN STADEN

University of Witwatersrand, South Africa, Senior Researcher, South African Institute of International Affairs (SAIIA), will discuss

“Locating African Agency in the BRI.” This talk is a part of “China-Africa Relations: The Belt and Road Initiative and its Impact on Africa,” a two-day conference on April 4-5. For more information on the conference, visit www.jou.ufl.edu/china-africa

Food and reception directly following the Van Staden event in 471 Grinter Hall

SPONSORED BY: China-Africa Working Group, Center for African Studies, UF International Center, College of Journalism and Communications, Hugh Cunningham Fund for Journalism Excellence,
African-American Studies Program, Department of Political Science, Warrington College of Business