ANT 3930 (sect 125B)

Fall 2014

Turlington Hall Room 2322

MWF Period 3 (9:35am -- 10:25am)

Instructor: James M. Davidson, Ph.D.

Office: Turlington B134

Email: davidson@ufl.edu

Office Hours: Monday 2 – 5 pm (and by appointment)

Course Website: <http://www.clas.ufl.edu/users/davidson/courses.htm>

Description: This course is designed to present a historical overview of the field of African-American archaeology, starting with the first scientific excavations in the 1940s. Participants will obtain knowledge of important case studies, key figures, major issues, and the overall development of the discipline. Theoretical, methodological, and ethical issues will be addressed. Through lectures, I will introduce the readings and provide broad overviews of the overarching topics and issues within the field of African-American Archaeology. A good portion of class time, however, will be spent discussing and critiquing the readings.

Required Readings:

1. James Deetz
1996 In Small Things Forgotten: An Archaeology of Early American Life.
Anchor (Revised and Expanded edition)
2. Singleton, Theresa (editor)
1999 "I, Too, Am America": Archaeological Studies of African-American Life.
University Press of Virginia, Charlottesville.
3. Electronic documents, comprising key articles and book chapters, will be posted and downloadable as .pdf files from a university server.

Requirements: There will be two non cumulative exams, the format of which will be a mixture of objective questions (e.g., true false, multiple choice, etc), and one or more short answer or essay questions. There will also be a final exam (cumulative). Participation in class discussions is expected. Each student's input will be especially crucial, since this will be a small class. Students are expected to have read the readings for that day, and come to class prepared to discuss them.

The writing component for this class is satisfied by three critical response essays on key readings to be assigned throughout the semester. Each essay will be three (maximum four) pages in length, double spaced, 12 point font, and one-inch margins. These will be corrected and returned with comments.

Grading:

Exams 1 and 2 (20% each)	40%
Critical response essays (three total)	30%
Attendance/Class Participation	10%
Final Exam (comprehensive)	20%

A final letter grade will be assigned at the end of the semester, according to this scale:

A	(93-100%)
A-	(90-92%)
B+	(88-89%)
B	(83-87%)
B-	(80-82%)
C+	(78-79%)
C	(73-77%)
C-	(70-72%)
D+	(68-69%)
D	(63-67%)
D-	(60-62%)
E	(59% or below)

Attendance: Regular attendance is expected. Excessive unexcused absences will detract from the student's final grade (see above).

Make-up Exams:

If an exam is missed, and the absence was pre-arranged, or in the event of illness accompanied by a physician's note, a make-up exam will be given. No make-up exams will be given for students who miss the testing period due to unexcused absences.

Accommodating Students with Disabilities:

Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student, who in turn must provide this documentation to me when requesting accommodation.

Academic Honesty:

The University reminds every student of the implied pledge of Academic Honesty: “on any work submitted for credit the student has neither received nor given unauthorized aid.”

THIS REFERS TO CHEATING AND PLAGIARISM, AND IT WILL NOT BE TOLERATED IN THIS CLASS.

Consult the Student Guide at <https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/> for further information.

Students caught cheating will be referred to the University administration for disciplinary action, the consequences of which can include (among other things) failure of this course, and expulsion from the University.
